“ I use to work with Rick and Vicki at Walmart in Chanute. Rick actually trained me at the service desk. I just recently found out that he was related to my grandfathers best buddy back in the day. Rick was an extremely nice guy and very funny. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. My heartfelt condolences to you Vicki, and to all his family and friends.

“ Rickey married Vickie, my younger sister, October 2, 1976. It was truly a marriage made in heaven. While they had no children they always had each other and that love endured all of their years together. You will be dearly missed Rickey Booe.

“ Rick was a good friend from high school. He was one of a group of friends who spent time at our house several days a week. Whenever Rick was around there was laughter. We missed him when he moved to the Moran area, and enjoyed his visits back to Humboldt. We were Facebook friends and liked reading his humorous posts & comments. He sure loved Vickie and my prayers are with her and his family.
